Perfume and punches: Rio's drug war widows fight back

WIDOWS OF RICH DRUG BOSSES in Rio de Janeiro are now organising their own "Black Widows" club to help them survive in the city after the death of their husbands.

The club is a place where widows can meet and share their experiences. It is a place where they can find support and help. The club is a place where they can find a sense of community and belonging. The club is a place where they can find a sense of purpose and meaning. The club is a place where they can find a sense of hope and optimism.

The club is a place where they can find a sense of peace and tranquility. The club is a place where they can find a sense of joy and happiness. The club is a place where they can find a sense of love and compassion. The club is a place where they can find a sense of life and vitality.
